

County Officials Complete Training for Recorders

Wave 25 Oct 1984

Three Wasatch County officials recently completed the Utah Clerks and Recorders Institute, a one-week training program in Salt Lake City sponsored by the University of Utah Center for Public Affairs and Administration.

Graduates of the program were Shirley Chatwin, Midway

City Recorder; Bonnie Lasshe, City Recorder of Kamas; and Eleanor J. Duke, Heber City Clerk-Recorder.

The institute included seminars on management and productivity, ethics of public service, state records law and business licensing.

The Center for Public Affairs

conducts research and offers educational programs to improve the operation of state and local government in Utah.

Other sponsors of the program are the Utah League of Cities and Towns, the Utah Municipal Clerks Association and the International Institute of Municipal Clerks.

Heber Valley Jaycees Discu.

The Heber Valley Jaycees held bi-monthly meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 23, and discussed projects for Nov. and December.

President Steve Zimmerman reported that members in attendance discussed the annual bringing of "Santa to Town."

The Jaycees sponsor the project to give all the young children a chance to meet Santa.

The members thought it might be a good idea to have a photographer around to take pictures of children on Santa's lap. Further discussion on the

FFA Safety Day Celebrated